Notes:

The recorder orchestra has a compressed rehearsal schedule. In order to perform well as an ensemble we need to do the following:

- Attend every rehearsal. This is assumed!
- Be ready to play at 8:00. (Arrive by 7:50 to set up.)
- Mark your music (in pencil) as necessary during rehearsals.
- Practice your music between rehearsals.

There is another activity in our rehearsal space until nearly 7:30 on our rehearsal evenings. I will try to set up the chairs in the proper formation at that time. You should plan to move in to set up promptly. Rehearsals start and end on time. Rehearsals are carefully planned, and I have a precise time schedule for each work during rehearsals.

Playing in an orchestra that prepares for performance is challenging - and it can be fun. As in the past, I intend to work efficiently and also to have fun as we work together.
